

Usaphea Horn was born on May 5, 1990. He grew up in a rural village in southern Cambodia, where his family relied on the rice they grew, which barely sustained eleven members of the family. Usaphea accepted Jesus Christ as his savior in 2004 and received baptism in 2009. He married Lakhena Hul in March 2023 and has a daughter, Soma.

Usaphea has dedicated his life to embodying the teachings of Christ through giving and active engagement in Christian ministries. His heartfelt commitment to serving others is evident in his leadership in numerous humanitarian projects, where he has tirelessly worked to bring hope and aid to those in need. He was the National Coordinator for Operation Christmas Child Cambodia, Director of Living Faith Center, Director and Founder of God's Family Center, Head of the Body of Christ Prayer Movement, and a volunteer with Ambassador For Christ International in Cambodia. During the outbreak of COVID-19, he traveled across Cambodia to distribute tons of rice, food packages, and medicine to those in need.

Usaphea has begun his humble journey in his diplomatic career with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Kingdom of Cambodia (MFA.IC) since 2016. Currently serving as the Second Secretary-Chief of Consular Affairs since April 2022, Usaphea has been instrumental in safeguarding the interests of Cambodian citizens and the Cambodian-American community in the U.S. and Mexico. Usaphea's extensive experience also includes serving as the Acting Chief of the Cambodian National Protection Bureau at MFA.IC, where he focused on critical issues such as transnational marriage, anti-human trafficking and modern slavery, transnational crime, and the welfare of Cambodian migrant workers.

Usaphea's academic background includes a Bachelor's Degree of Arts in International Studies from the Institute of Foreign Languages, Royal University of Phnom Penh, and currently, he is an M.A. candidate in Foreign Policy at the School of International Service, American University.

With a heart firmly anchored in his faith, Usaphea's future endeavors promise to further bridge the realms of diplomatic service and Christian ministry, embodying hope and peace in a world in need of both.
